Staff Reflection

“As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you.” I am not sure I have ever really stopped to think about this phrase until I had to read this Gospel in order to write this article. Jesus assures us that he loves us in the same way that his Father loves him! Can we dare to believe that Jesus might want to bless us with this grace and this incredible gift? What is it like for us to sit with this statement? Do we know it deep in our hearts? Do we long to know it deeper and deeper?

And what about Jesus’ statement, “Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love.” How do we “remain” in God’s love? I think there are some very practical ways we can do this and as I type it is a reminder to me to make a better effort to do some of these things.

We can remain in Jesus’ love by walking and seeking Jesus daily through time in scripture and time reading the Bible. It is through these words and stories that God reveals himself to us. I have not watched The Chosen, but many people have encouraged me to do so. Perhaps this is a way to remain with Jesus, to know him better, to understand his works and message better?

When we wake each morning, do we say a quick “thank you”? Sometime during the day do we practice St. Ignatius’ call to pray the Examen – to look at where God has been in our day and where we might have missed him? We can stay connected by asking the Lord to reveal how we can love others each day. We can stay with Him by praying throughout our days and inviting God into every moment. We can take a few quiet moments in the car, on our walk into our office, and on our drive to pick up the kids from practice to listen and be aware of his presence.

“Remain in my love.” Lord Jesus, we know your presence is always with us. Help us to love one another and to bring your love and message to all those with whom we meet this week.

Patricia O’Donnell

Thank You Sister Eileen!

For nine years, Sister Eileen Tiernan has joyfully led the PREP program at St. Pats in her role as Director of Religious Education. She has inspired us all with her dedication to our parish children and her commitment to spreading the word of God. Sister Eileen has requested to step down as Director of Religious Education. We would like to extend our sincere gratitude for her service to the PREP program at St. Patrick Parish. We are happy to share that she will remain a part of the St. Patrick family. She will continue to lead our pre-Jordan classes, coordinate Baptisms and facilitate our OCIA program, as well as some other works of the parish.

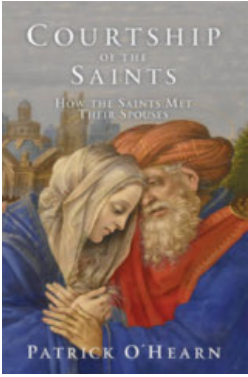

Sacraments

If you would like your child to be baptized here at St. Patrick Parish, please email Sr. Eileen at etiernan@stpatrickmalvern.org for information and guidance on the process of preparing for this Sacrament.
