Staff Reflection

Today's Gospel from Mark is not an easy one. We do not get a pleasant image of Jesus as a friendly shepherd or a familiar parable like the Prodigal Son. Instead, Jesus chooses to respond to the scribes accusing him of using the power of Satan with a parable about breaking into a house. Not quite as warm and fuzzy. But what is really going on here?

We must remember that the scribes are trying to convince the crowd of Christ's followers that Jesus is able to cast out demons by using the power and authority of Satan and not of God. Jesus must explain that if He were using Satan's power, He would be undoing Satan's own evil work, creating a logical fallacy. Instead, Jesus says, "no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man" (Mk 3:27).

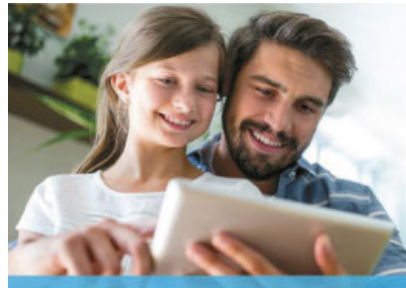

In the parable, the strong man is Satan and the house is his evil domain. The property to be plundered are the people from whom Jesus drives out demons. It is impossible for Jesus to use Satan's power to cast out demons because He must bind Satan in order to free the man. Jesus uses the power of the Holy Spirit to perform miracles and set us free.

In a strange way, Jesus is this thief in the night, coming to free us from Satan's house. Satan wishes to imprison us in his house, but Jesus comes to destroy Satan and all his evil works, binding them and setting us free.

While I doubt this Gospel passage will ever be as beloved as Jesus as the Good Shepherd or the parable of the Prodigal Son, it has much to teach us. Join me in going forward secure in the knowledge that Jesus has come to liberate us from sin and set us free for a beautiful life with Him.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Julia Goldschmidt

Congratulations to the Class of 2024!

The Academic Year is concluding for many in high school and college, and to them I extend sincere congratulations to our parishioners who are graduating from high school and college. I especially rejoice with our 8th Grade Class, who graduated last Sunday. I am very proud of these wonderful young men and women I and am so happy that I have come to know them during this past year. Graduates, as you look to the future, remember that God is with you. Take the hand which Jesus offers to you, and, guided by the Holy Spirit, you will do the Father's Will at all times.

God bless you!
Monsignor Duncan

Prolife Initiatives

The St. Patrick Knights of Columbus launched their annual Pro-Life Baby Bottle Campaign on Mother's Day weekend, May 11-12. Please take a bottle from the narthex to fill with your donations and return it to the church beginning on Father's Day weekend, June 15-16.

We thoughtfully use these contributions to support pro-life chastity education, pregnancy support centers, post abortion grief healing, and other life affirming causes which are consistent with Catholic teaching as needs arise.

In concert with the bottle campaign we will also continue our Annual Diaper Collection in support of the our sister parish in Norristown. Diapers can be placed in the collection bins in the church vestibule.

We appreciate your past generosity. The impact of your donation will be further increased with partially matching grants from the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council.

On a visit to the United States, St. John Paul II once exhorted:

*"You are called to stand up for life!
To respect and defend the mystery of life
always and everywhere,
including the lives of unborn babies,
giving real help and encouragement to mothers in difficult situations."*

Vivat Jesus!

D-Day Memorial

June 6th marked the 80th Anniversary of the invasion of Normandy. The operation allowed the Allied forces to gain a foothold in mainland Europe and eventually free the continent from Nazi forces. Approximately 4,000 soldiers died carrying out Operation Overlord. This year on June 6 at the 9AM Daily Mass, we remembered all those who served and especially those who died on that day.
