Staff Reflection

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.”

What worries you? Perhaps a lack of money or a troubling financial situation? Maybe you're dealing with a serious health situation, or a loved one may be ill. There could be a child who hasn't spoken to you in a while, or some other family member might be estranged. Your job may be in jeopardy, or you may already be out of a job. Each one of us has something that pulls at our heart or concerns us. If we are not careful, then these concerns can turn into a consuming worry, and that worry can turn into fear. But why do we worry? We worry because in our heart, at the core of our being, we just want to know that everything will be "okay." What Jesus is telling us in the Gospel today is that everything will be okay, so long as we have faith and we come to Him. We need to have faith in Jesus and come to Him just as Jairus came to Jesus to heal his daughter, and just as the woman with the hemorrhage came to Jesus with her long suffering. When we reach a point of total surrender and trust in our relationship with Jesus, then we will know that everything will be okay even when it is not okay. That is because we will have come to the realization that closeness with Jesus is the ultimate goal. So often suffering, tragedy and trying times bring us to Jesus, just as the sufferings of Jairus and the woman brought them to Jesus. When we give Jesus our trust and surrender, then He gives us peace and joy. This is true even if those challenging life situations don't actually change for the better. Sometimes they will, sometimes they won't. But whether they do or they don't, that goal of wanting to know that everything is okay will be achieved if we end up closer to Jesus in the process. Then that peace & joy that we seek will be attained. Frequent reception of The Eucharist, silent prayer time, and adoration are three of the most powerful ways for that awareness and closeness to happen.

Him.

God Bless,
Deacon Tom Strohmetz

Sanctuary Memorial Fund

In order to provide for the liturgical needs of the Church and Sanctuary, I am establishing a Sanctuary Memorial Fund. The fund will enable us to purchase new vestments as we need them. (Some of our vestments are getting worn and tattered.) Improvements to the altar would include, altar cloths trimmed in red for certain occasions and a cloth trimmed in blue for Masses and celebrations in honor of Our Lady, along with 2 additional candlesticks for the altar for Solemnities, Forty Hours Devotion, etc.. Another goal is to construct a shrine for our Saint Patrick statue, as well as to purchase a statue of Our Lord with His Sacred Heart. The Sacred Heart statue would be placed in the narthex of the Church.

Donations to this fund are a simple way of memorializing our deceased loved ones. They also could be made in honor of those who are living. Please consider supporting this fund, particularly when planning for the funeral of a loved one. This is a gift to Saint Patrick Parish that will enhance our Divine Encounter.
